

CLAMATORIAL

Meaning: Clamatorial refers to a style of speaking that is loud, forceful, and emotionally expressive, often intended to engage and captivate an audience.

1. The speaker's clamatorial delivery captivated the audience from start to finish.
2. In the debate, her clamatorial approach was both passionate and persuasive.
3. His clamatorial style often overshadowed the content of his arguments.
4. The professor admired the clamatorial techniques used by historical orators.
5. During the rally, the politician's clamatorial performance energized the crowd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clamatorial>