

CLAMORER

Meaning: Clamorers are individuals who loudly express their demands or grievances, often in a public setting.

1. The clamorers outside the courthouse demanded justice for the victims.
2. As a clamorers' voice rose above the crowd, it became clear that the protest was gaining momentum.
3. In a heated debate, the clamorers struggled to make their demands heard over the noise of dissent.
4. The politician was once a clamorers' favorite but had since lost their support due to broken promises.
5. Amidst the chaos, the clamorers united under a single banner, their message resonating loud and clear.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clamorer>