

CLANK

Meaning: Clank: a loud, sharp sound made when metal strikes metal.

1. The metal door swung open with a loud clank, echoing through the empty hallway.
2. As the blacksmith hammered the iron, the rhythmic clank of metal on metal filled the forge.
3. When the old train pulled into the station, its rusty wheels made a clank that signaled its arrival.
4. She accidentally dropped her keys, and they hit the floor with a sharp clank that startled everyone in the room.
5. The chains clanked together as the heavy gate slowly creaked open, revealing the hidden courtyard.
6. The old metal gate swung open with a loud clank that echoed through the empty yard.
7. As he dropped the heavy toolbox onto the floor, it made a clank that startled everyone in the room.
8. She heard the clank of the chains as the ship's anchor hit the seabed.
9. He paused to listen to the clank of the pots and pans coming from the kitchen.
10. The sound of clank reverberated in the workshop as he tightened the last bolt on the machine.
11. The heavy chains clank against the metal bars as the prisoner walks by.
12. As the blacksmith hammered the iron, the rhythmic clank echoed through the workshop.
13. A loud clank startled her as the pot dropped from the shelf and hit the floor.
14. He could hear the clank of the gears inside the old clock, marking each passing hour.
15. With each step, the knight's armor made a distinctive clank that filled the quiet street.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clank>