

CLAP

Meaning: Clap (verb): to strike the palms of the hands together to create a sharp sound, often as a form of expression or celebration.

1. She let out a loud clap of excitement when she heard the good news.
 2. The audience erupted into applause, their hands coming together in a rhythmic clap.
 3. With a swift clap, he signaled the start of the race, and the runners took off.
 4. The sudden clap of thunder startled the children playing outside.
 5. After her performance, the crowd stood and gave her a standing ovation, their claps echoing through the hall.
 6. The audience erupted in applause, their hands coming together to clap enthusiastically.
 7. She couldn't help but clap her hands in excitement when her team won the championship.
 8. As the final performance concluded, the crowd stood up to clap for the talented dancers.
 9. He tried to clap quietly, not wanting to distract his friend during the presentation.
 10. With every punchline, the comedian received a hearty clap of approval from the audience.
 11. The audience erupted into a loud clap as the performer took a bow.
 12. She felt a rush of adrenaline as she heard the clap of thunder in the distance.
 13. With a quick clap of his hands, he gathered everyone's attention for the meeting.
 14. The children began to clap in rhythm, excited by the lively music.
 15. As the final notes faded, the crowd stood up to give a standing clap in appreciation.
 16. The audience erupted into applause and began to clap enthusiastically after the performance.
 17. She gave a loud clap to get everyone's attention before starting the meeting.
 18. As the thunder rumbled overhead, it felt as though the sky was about to clap back with even more rain.
 19. After finishing the song, the band took a bow, prompting the crowd to clap in admiration.
 20. With a playful grin, he clapped his hands together to celebrate the team's victory.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clap>