

CLAPPER

Meaning: Clapper: a movable metal piece inside a bell that strikes the bell to produce sound.

1. The loud clapper echoed through the hall, signaling the start of the performance.
2. As the church bells rang, the clapper swung vigorously, producing a resonant sound.
3. In traditional theater, the clapper is often used to indicate scene changes or cues.
4. He crafted a beautiful wooden clapper for the handbell he had restored.
5. During the festival, a giant clapper was installed to draw in the crowds with its booming tone.
6. The clapper inside the bell rang loudly, signaling the start of the festival.
7. As the audience cheered, the clapper of the award ceremony announced the winners with enthusiasm.
8. He fashioned a unique clapper from wood, enhancing the sound of the handbell he had restored.
9. During the performance, the clapper of the castanets added a lively rhythm to the music.
10. The old clock's clapper swung back and forth, echoing through the silent room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clapper>