

CLAPPERCLAW

Meaning: Clapperclaw (verb): To scratch or claw at something vigorously, often leaving damage or marks, or to engage in sharp, biting verbal exchanges.

1. The cat clapperclawed at the curtains, leaving a trail of shredded fabric behind.
2. During the heated argument, their words were like clapperclaws, sharp and biting.
3. He felt a clapperclaw of resentment as he watched his friend succeed where he had failed.
4. The children's laughter rang out like clapperclaws, playful and mischievous in the warm summer air.
5. In her frustration, she clapperclawed at her own hair, trying to make sense of the chaos.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clapperclaw>