

CLAPTRAP

Meaning: Claptrap refers to insincere or nonsensical talk or ideas that lack genuine substance or value.

1. The politician's speech was filled with so much claptrap that it failed to resonate with the audience.
2. She dismissed his ideas as mere claptrap, lacking any real substance or practicality.
3. In the world of marketing, it's easy to get swept away in the claptrap that promises unrealistic results.
4. Despite the claptrap surrounding the new product launch, customers remained skeptical of its benefits.
5. His enthusiastic endorsement sounded more like claptrap than a genuine review, raising doubts among potential buyers.
6. His speech was filled with such claptrap that it was hard to take him seriously.
7. The advertisement relied on clever claptrap to mask the lack of real substance in the product.
8. Critics dismissed the film as mere claptrap, lacking any meaningful message or depth.
9. She was tired of the claptrap that dominated social media, preferring genuine conversations instead.
10. In a world full of claptrap, finding authentic voices can be a refreshing challenge.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/claptrap>