

CLASH

Meaning: CLASH: to come into conflict or collision, either in competition or in contrast.

1. The two teams will clash in the championship game this Saturday.
2. As the storm approached, the dark clouds began to clash with the bright sunlight.
3. Cultural traditions can sometimes clash when people from different backgrounds meet.
4. Their opinions clashed during the debate, leading to a heated discussion.
5. The sound of metal clashing echoed through the battlefield, signaling the start of the fight.
6. The loud clash of cymbals signaled the start of the parade.
7. Their differing opinions often led to a clash during team meetings.
8. The clash between tradition and modernity is evident in the city's architecture.
9. As the two rival teams took the field, the tension of the impending clash was palpable.
10. The artist's use of color created a beautiful clash that drew the viewer's eye.
11. The sudden clash of thunder interrupted the peaceful silence of the night.
12. During the meeting, a clash of opinions emerged between the two departments.
13. The vibrant colors of the sunset clashed beautifully against the darkening sky.
14. As the two teams took the field, the excitement of the impending clash electrified the crowd.
15. Their differing views on the project caused a clash that needed to be addressed immediately.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clash>