

CLASP

Meaning: CLASP (verb): To fasten or hold something securely in place, often by encircling or gripping.

1. She reached for the delicate necklace and deftly clasped it around her neck.
2. The child's hand slipped from hers, but she quickly clasped it tightly again.
3. With a gentle motion, he clasped the book shut, lost in thought.
4. The artisan demonstrated how to clasp the metal pieces together with precision.
5. As the storm approached, she clasped her coat tightly to ward off the chill.
6. She used a delicate gold clasp to secure her necklace.
7. The child watched in awe as the magician clasped his hands and made the rabbit disappear.
8. He felt a warm sense of nostalgia as he clasped the old photograph tightly in his hands.
9. The clasp on her handbag broke, spilling its contents all over the floor.
10. With a firm grasp, she clasped her friend's hand to offer reassurance during the difficult moment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clasp>