

CLASPERED

Meaning: CLASPERED: (verb) the act of grasping or holding tightly, often with specialized appendages or limbs.

1. The octopus gracefully clasps its prey with its agile tentacles.
2. During the mating ritual, the male seahorse clasps the female tightly.
3. The creature's specialized appendages clasped the rocky surface to maintain its position.
4. In the underwater documentary, the diver observed how the crab clasps its food.
5. Researchers noted that the unique clasps of the species play a crucial role in reproduction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clasped>