

CLAUDICANT

Meaning: Claudicant refers to a person who limps or walks with difficulty, often due to pain or a medical condition affecting the legs.

1. The old man moved slowly across the park, a claudicant in search of a resting place.
2. After years of running marathons, the athlete became a claudicant due to a chronic leg condition.
3. Despite her claudicant gait, she refused to let her physical limitations define her spirit.
4. The doctor explained that a claudicant may experience pain in the legs during prolonged walking.
5. Watching the claudicant struggle up the hill, I felt a surge of empathy and offered my arm for support.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/claudicant>