

CLAUSTRAL

Meaning: Claustral: relating to or characterized by confinement or isolation, often evoking feelings of anxiety or introspection.

1. The claustral environment of the cave made it a perfect setting for solitude and reflection.
2. He felt a claustral anxiety as the doors closed behind him, trapping him in the small room.
3. In the novel, the claustral atmosphere amplified the protagonist's sense of entrapment and despair.
4. Her claustral memories of the cramped apartment haunted her long after she had moved away.
5. The claustral design of the building was both praised for its aesthetics and criticized for its lack of open spaces.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/claustral>