

CLERKLIKE

Meaning: CLERKLIKE: Adjective describing a manner or demeanor that is characteristic of a clerk, often implying efficiency, attention to detail, and a focus on administrative tasks.

1. Her clerklike demeanor made her the perfect candidate for the administrative position.
2. He approached the task with a clerklike precision, ensuring every detail was meticulously recorded.
3. In the bustling office, her clerklike efficiency helped keep everything running smoothly.
4. The clerklike routine of filing and organizing became second nature to him over the years.
5. Despite his clerklike appearance, he had a creative side that surprised everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clerklike>