

CLICKER

Meaning: A clicker is a handheld device used to register responses or votes, often in educational or conference settings.

1. The teacher used a clicker to engage her students during the presentation.
2. At the conference, participants were handed clickers to vote on their favorite ideas.
3. During the game, the audience excitedly pressed their clickers to answer trivia questions.
4. He bought a new clicker for his dog training sessions to help with commands.
5. The remote control served as a clicker for both the television and the sound system.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clicker>