

CLIENT

Meaning: CLIENT: A person or organization that engages the services of a professional or business, particularly in a consulting or service-oriented context.

1. The consultant met with the client to discuss the project requirements in detail.
2. Maintaining a good relationship with the client is essential for long-term success.
3. Our firm has secured a major client that could significantly boost our revenue.
4. The client expressed satisfaction with the service provided during the last meeting.
5. After reviewing the proposal, the client requested additional revisions before approval.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/client>