

CLIMB

Meaning: To ascend or go up something, such as a mountain or tree, using the hands and feet.

1. She decided to climb the mountain at dawn to catch the sunrise.
2. The children watched in awe as the monkey began to climb the tree effortlessly.
3. After months of training, he was finally ready to attempt the difficult rock climb.
4. They were excited to climb the stairs of the historic lighthouse and enjoy the view from the top.
5. With each step she took, the climb became more challenging, but she was determined to reach the summit.
6. She decided to climb the mountain despite the challenging weather conditions.
7. As the sun set, they began their steep climb to the summit.
8. The children watched in awe as the squirrel made its daring climb up the tree.
9. After months of training, he was finally ready to take on the toughest climb of his life.
10. They encouraged each other to push through the fatigue and finish the final climb before dusk.
11. The children eagerly watched the squirrel make a difficult climb up the tree trunk.
12. After months of training, he was finally ready to attempt the steep rock climb.
13. As the sun began to set, they made their final climb to the summit for a breathtaking view.
14. Her heart raced with excitement as she prepared for the climb of her life in the Himalayas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/climb>