

CLINCH

Meaning: CLINCH (verb): to secure or achieve something, especially a victory or agreement, through decisive effort or action.

1. The two fighters were determined to clinch the championship title at the upcoming match.
2. After months of negotiation, the two companies finally managed to clinch a lucrative partnership deal.
3. With a final burst of energy, she was able to clinch victory in the marathon race.
4. The couple shared a passionate kiss to clinch their engagement announcement.
5. He needed to clinch the support of the committee before presenting his project proposal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clinch>