

CLINCHER

Meaning: A clincher is a decisive factor or argument that ultimately determines the outcome or conclusion of a situation.

1. The last-minute goal was the clincher that secured their victory in the championship match.
2. Her passionate speech served as the clincher, convincing the committee to fund the project.
3. When he revealed the surprising twist, it became the clincher that left the audience in awe.
4. The evidence presented in court was the clincher that led to a guilty verdict.
5. In the debate, her final argument was the clincher that won over the judges.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clincher>