

CLING

Meaning: To hold on tightly or firmly to something; to adhere closely or depend on emotionally.

1. She began to cling to the hope that things would get better.
2. The child would cling tightly to her mother's hand in the crowded market.
3. He tried to cling to the memories of their time together, despite the passage of years.
4. During the storm, the branches of the tree seemed to cling desperately to the roof.
5. As the fabric of her dress fluttered in the wind, she could feel it cling to her figure.
6. The child began to cling to his mother's leg when he saw the large dog approaching.
7. In the humid summer air, the fabric of her dress seemed to cling to her skin uncomfortably.
8. Despite the storm raging outside, she felt the warmth of his hand as he clung to her tightly.
9. The memories of that summer vacation continue to cling to my mind like a sweet melody.
10. As the climber reached the summit, he could feel the cold wind cling to his face, invigorating and daunting.
11. The child began to cling to her mother's leg in the crowded room.
12. As the storm approached, the dog clung tightly to its owner's side.
13. She felt a sense of nostalgia cling to her as she walked through her childhood neighborhood.
14. The fabric was designed to cling perfectly to the body's curves, enhancing the silhouette.
15. He tried to shake off the doubts that clung to him like shadows in the night.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cling>