

CLINK

Meaning: Clink (verb): to make a light, sharp sound as two objects, typically glass or metal, come into contact.

1. The glasses made a cheerful clink as they touched during the toast.
2. She could hear the soft clink of coins in his pocket as he walked by.
3. They sat on the patio, enjoying the sunset and the occasional clink of ice in their drinks.
4. As the door closed behind him, she heard the clink of his keys dropping onto the table.
5. The sound of the clink echoed in the quiet room, breaking the silence.
6. The glasses clinked together in a cheerful toast to celebrate their anniversary.
7. As the ice cubes tumbled into the glass, they made a satisfying clink that echoed in the quiet bar.
8. She could hear the distant clink of coins as the street performer played a lively tune.
9. The sound of metal clink against metal filled the air as the workers prepared for the construction project.
10. He reached into his pocket and pulled out a set of keys that began to clink softly as he walked.
11. The glasses made a cheerful clink as they were raised in a toast.
12. She heard the soft clink of coins at the bottom of her purse.
13. As the train pulled away, the sound of clinking metal echoed in the distance.
14. He watched the ice cubes clink against the glass as he poured the whiskey.
15. Their friendship was sealed with a clink of their beer bottles on the bar.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clink>