CLINORHOMBIC

Meaning: Clinorhombic refers to a crystal system characterized by three unequal axes, two of which intersect at right angles, commonly found in certain minerals like quartz and feldspar.

1. Clinorhombic crystals are often found in minerals such as quartz and feldspar.

2. The clinorhombic system features three unequal axes, with two of them intersecting at a right angle.

3. Researchers studied the clinorhombic structure of the new mineral to understand its formation process.

4. In crystallography, clinorhombic refers to a specific arrangement of atoms that can influence the material's properties.

5. The team discovered that the clinorhombic symmetry plays a significant role in the mineral's optical characteristics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clinorhombic