

CLIQUE

Meaning: Clique: a small, exclusive group of people who share common interests or activities and often exclude others.

1. The school's popular clique often excluded those who didn't share their interests.
2. She felt pressured to conform to the norms of her friend's clique during high school.
3. Despite being part of the same clique, they often disagreed on important issues.
4. The new student struggled to find her place within the tight-knit clique.
5. Cliques can sometimes create a sense of belonging but also foster division among peers.
6. The high school clique often excluded anyone who didn't share their interests.
7. Despite her efforts to fit in, she felt like an outsider in the tight-knit clique.
8. Their clique was known for organizing the best parties in the neighborhood.
9. He was frustrated by how the clique treated newcomers with disdain.
10. As they grew older, the bonds within the clique started to fade away.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clique>