

CLOD

Meaning: CLOD: A lump or chunk of earth or soil, often compacted and typically found in agricultural or gardening contexts.

1. The farmer picked up a clod of earth to examine its moisture content.
2. After the rain, the garden was scattered with clods of wet soil.
3. He felt like a clod for forgetting his best friend's birthday.
4. The clod of clay was perfect for shaping into a small pot.
5. In the debate, his arguments were so weak that he came across as a clod.
6. The farmer turned over a clod of earth to check the moisture content.
7. Despite his cleverness, he often acted like a clod in social situations.
8. She threw a clod of dirt at her friend during their playful outdoor game.
9. The gardener was pleased to see the clods breaking apart under the warm sun.
10. His stubbornness made him seem like a clod, completely resistant to new ideas.
11. After the heavy rain, the garden was filled with clods of mud that made walking difficult.
12. He was such a clod in social situations, always saying the wrong thing at the wrong time.
13. The children laughed as they threw clods of dirt at each other during their playful scuffle.
14. She kicked a clod of grass out of her way as she walked along the overgrown path.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clod>