

CLODPOLL

Meaning: Clodpoll: a foolish or clumsy person, often lacking in social awareness or intelligence.

1. The clodpoll couldn't understand why everyone was laughing at his mistake.
2. Despite being called a clodpoll, she surprised everyone with her brilliant idea.
3. He felt like a clodpoll after forgetting his friend's birthday for the third year in a row.
4. In the lively debate, one clodpoll dominated the discussion with nonsensical arguments.
5. Her clodpoll of a brother always managed to get into trouble without knowing it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clodpoll>