

CLOFF

Meaning: Cloff (verb): To make a loud, echoing sound, typically associated with a closing action, such as that of a kettle or door.

1. The cloff of the kettle echoed through the quiet kitchen as she prepared dinner.
2. He decided to cloff the door behind him to keep the noise from the party outside.
3. Amidst the laughter and chatter, a cloff resounded, momentarily silencing the crowd.
4. She gave a soft cloff to the table, signaling that it was time to begin the meeting.
5. As the storm raged outside, the cloff of the shutters added to the eerie atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cloff>