

CLOMP

Meaning: CLOMP (verb): to walk with a heavy, loud, and clumsy sound, often due to the impact of feet or hooves on a surface.

1. The horse clomped down the gravel path, its hooves echoing in the stillness.
2. As he walked through the mud, his boots clomped heavily with each step.
3. She could hear the sound of the children's feet clomping down the hallway.
4. The giant clomp of the marching band filled the air as they approached the parade.
5. With every clomp of the heavy machinery, the ground shook beneath us.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clomp>