

CLONG

Meaning: 'CLONG' refers to a loud, resonant sound produced by a heavy object striking a hard surface.

1. The heavy metal door clonged shut, echoing through the empty hallway.
2. As the children played with the old tin can, it clonged loudly against the pavement.
3. She winced as the book fell off the shelf and clonged onto the hardwood floor.
4. The sound of the hammer hitting the nail created a rhythmic clong throughout the workshop.
5. With a swift kick, he sent the soccer ball flying, and it clonged against the goalpost.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clong>