

CLOOP

Meaning: CLOOP (noun): A sound or action associated with a popping or spinning motion, often producing a playful or amusing effect.

1. The children giggled as they watched the cloop of the colorful toy spinning around the room.
2. With a loud cloop, the lid of the jar popped open, releasing a sweet aroma into the air.
3. As she stepped onto the old wooden porch, it let out a soft cloop that echoed in the stillness.
4. During the experiment, the scientist noted the cloop of the liquid as it splashed into the beaker.
5. When he dropped the ball, it made a satisfying cloop sound as it hit the ground and bounced back.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cloop>