

CLOSE

Meaning: CLOSE (verb): to move something to a position that obstructs access or view; (adjective): having a strong emotional bond or relationship.

1. Please close the door quietly so you don't disturb the meeting.
2. She felt a close connection with her childhood friend after all these years.
3. The store is located close to the park, making it a convenient stop.
4. He decided to close the book, feeling satisfied with how the story ended.
5. The two teams were close in score, making the final minutes incredibly tense.
6. She decided to close the window to block out the noise from the street.
7. The two friends promised to stay close even after moving to different cities.
8. As the deadline approached, the team worked late to close the gap in their project.
9. He felt a close connection to the community after volunteering for several months.
10. The store will close early on Sundays, so make sure to do your shopping in the morning.
11. Please close the door quietly when you leave.
12. She felt a close connection with her childhood friends.
13. The store is located close to the main square in town.
14. We need to close the window before it starts raining.
15. His advice brought us closer together as a team.
16. Please close the window before the rain starts pouring in.
17. She felt a close bond with her childhood friends that lasted into adulthood.
18. The store is located close to the main square, making it easy to find.
19. They decided to close the meeting early to allow everyone to enjoy the sunny afternoon.
20. With the deadline approaching, the team worked closely together to finish the project.
21. She decided to close the window to keep out the cold breeze.
22. The restaurant is located close to the beach, making it a popular spot for tourists.

23. After years of hard work, they were finally close to achieving their dream of opening a bakery.
 24. He leaned in to close the distance between them, his heart racing with anticipation.
 25. The detective was close to uncovering the truth behind the mysterious disappearance.
 26. Can you please close the window before the rain starts?
 27. They have become very close friends over the years.
 28. The museum is located close to the city center.
 29. He decided to close the book and take a break.
 30. Her voice was close to a whisper as she shared her secret.
 31. She decided to close the window because the noise outside was too distracting.
 32. The two friends stood close together, sharing secrets under the stars.
 33. After a long day, he was glad to finally close his eyes and rest.
 34. The store will close early for the holiday, so make sure to shop before then.
 35. They were close to reaching their destination when the storm suddenly hit.
 36. The dog ran close to its owner during the walk in the park.
 37. She whispered a secret, leaning in close so only he could hear.
 38. After a long day, they finally felt close to achieving their goal.
 39. The store will close early today due to the holiday.
 40. They shared a close bond that had developed over many years.
 41. The store is close to my house, making it convenient for quick errands.
 42. Please close the window; it's starting to get chilly in here.
 43. After a long day at work, he was eager to close his laptop and relax.
 44. The final score was so close that the outcome could have gone either way.
 45. She felt a close bond with her childhood friends.
 46. Please close the window; it's getting chilly in here.
 47. They lived in close proximity to the city center.
 48. His explanation brought the concept much closer to my understanding.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/close>