

CLOTHESLINE

Meaning: A clothesline is a length of cord or wire suspended between two points, used for hanging wet clothes to dry.

1. She hung her freshly washed clothes on the clothesline to dry in the warm sun.
2. The strong wind whipped through the yard, causing the clothesline to sway gently.
3. He enjoyed the nostalgic sight of colorful garments flapping on the clothesline.
4. A clothesline in the backyard can be an eco-friendly alternative to using a dryer.
5. After the storm, the clothesline was tangled and needed to be repaired before it could be used again.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clothesline>