

CLOTHESPRESS

Meaning: A clothespress is a device or tool used for securing and hanging laundry, often on a line, to prevent it from slipping.

1. The clothespress was a handy tool for hanging laundry on a sunny day.
2. She efficiently used the clothespress to secure the sheets to the line without any slipping.
3. In the old farmhouse, a vintage clothespress sat proudly among the other rustic tools.
4. He admired the craftsmanship of the wooden clothespress that his grandmother used for decades.
5. After washing the clothes, she reached for the clothespress to keep everything in place while it dried.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clothespress>