

CLOUD-BURST

Meaning: A cloud-burst is a sudden and intense rainfall event that can lead to flash flooding.

1. The sudden cloud-burst flooded the streets, leaving residents scrambling for safety.
2. During our hike, we were caught off guard by a cloud-burst that drenched us in seconds.
3. The meteorologist warned of a potential cloud-burst, urging people in low-lying areas to evacuate.
4. After the cloud-burst, the river swelled dangerously high, threatening nearby homes.
5. Witnesses described a breathtaking yet terrifying scene as the cloud-burst unleashed torrents of rain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cloud-burst>