

CLUCKING

Meaning: Clucking refers to the short, sharp sounds made by hens or chickens, often associated with their vocalizations.

1. The clucking of the hens filled the barn as they pecked at the ground.
2. She could hear the clucking of the chickens from her kitchen window.
3. He mimicked the sound of clucking to make the children laugh during story time.
4. Every morning, the farmer would wake up to the clucking that signaled breakfast time for the birds.
5. As she approached the coop, the clucking grew louder, eager for their feed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clucking>