

CLUTCH

Meaning: Clutch: to grasp or hold something tightly; also, performing in a critical situation, especially under pressure.

1. She managed to clutch her purse tightly as the crowd surged around her.
2. In the final moments of the game, he made a clutch shot that sealed their victory.
3. The mother had to clutch her child's hand to keep him from wandering away in the busy market.
4. As the storm approached, they had to clutch their belongings and seek shelter quickly.
5. He felt a clutch of anxiety in his stomach before stepping onto the stage to perform.
6. She managed to clutch the fragile vase just before it fell off the table.
7. During the tense moment of the game, he had to clutch the ball tightly to secure the victory.
8. The mother watched her child with a clutch of pride as he took his first steps.
9. In a moment of panic, she reached for the clutch of her handbag to retrieve her phone.
10. He felt a clutch of anxiety in his stomach as he prepared to give his presentation.
11. She had to clutch the railing tightly to avoid slipping on the icy steps.
12. During the final moments of the game, he managed to clutch the ball and score a winning goal.
13. The mother held her child in a protective clutch as they navigated through the crowded market.
14. In her moment of doubt, she found a clutch of friends who supported her decision.
15. He reached into his pocket and pulled out a clutch of old coins that he had forgotten about.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/clutch>