

CLUTTER

Meaning: Clutter refers to a disorganized collection of items or excessive belongings that create a mess or hinder functionality in a space.

1. The living room was filled with clutter, making it difficult to find anything.
2. After a long day at work, she found solace in her clutter-free office space.
3. He decided it was time to declutter his home and donate items he no longer needed.
4. The clutter in her mind made it hard to focus on the task at hand.
5. They spent the weekend tackling the garage, finally clearing out years of accumulated clutter.
6. The living room was filled with clutter, making it difficult to find a place to sit.
7. She decided to declutter her workspace to increase productivity and focus.
8. After a long week, the garage had turned into a chaotic mess of clutter and forgotten items.
9. A little bit of organization can transform overwhelming clutter into a manageable system.
10. He felt a sense of relief as he cleared away the clutter from his mind and surroundings.
11. After a long day at work, she found solace in her tidy desk, free from clutter.
12. He decided to declutter his closet, donating clothes he hadn't worn in years.
13. The clutter on the kitchen counter made it hard to prepare meals efficiently.
14. She felt overwhelmed by the emotional clutter that had accumulated over the years.
15. The clutter in her living room made it difficult to find anything she needed.
16. He decided to declutter his workspace to improve his focus and productivity.
17. After the party, the kitchen was left in a state of utter clutter and disarray.
18. She felt overwhelmed by the emotional clutter that had built up over the years.
19. The artist used the clutter of his surroundings as inspiration for his latest work.