

CO-RELIGIONIST

Meaning: Co-religionist: a person who shares the same religion as another.

1. Her co-religionists gathered in the park to celebrate their annual festival.
2. The pastor emphasized the importance of unity among co-religionists in his sermon.
3. During the interfaith dialogue, she was surprised to find common ground with her co-religionists.
4. Co-religionists often support one another during times of personal crisis and community challenges.
5. The charity event was a collaborative effort between different co-religionists to aid those in need.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/co-religionist>