

COACTION

Meaning: Coaction refers to the collaborative interaction or cooperation between two or more parties to achieve a common goal.

1. Coaction between the two departments led to a more innovative product design.
2. The scientists emphasized the importance of coaction in achieving their research goals.
3. In a successful project, coaction among team members can significantly enhance productivity.
4. The documentary highlighted the coaction of various species within the ecosystem.
5. Effective leadership fosters a sense of coaction that drives team success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coaction>