

COACTIVELY

Meaning: Coactively means working together collaboratively and interactively towards a common goal or objective.

1. The team worked coactively to solve the complex problem, ensuring every perspective was considered.
2. In the workshop, participants engaged coactively to develop innovative solutions for community challenges.
3. The success of the project hinged on the ability of the departments to collaborate coactively and share resources.
4. By communicating coactively, the group was able to streamline their efforts and improve overall efficiency.
5. The researchers coactively conducted experiments, pooling their expertise to achieve groundbreaking results.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coactively>