

COADJUTIVE

Meaning: Coadjutive: serving to assist or collaborate with others in a joint effort or partnership.

1. The team's coadjutive efforts led to a groundbreaking discovery in renewable energy.
2. In her role as a coadjutive partner, she provided invaluable support to the lead researcher.
3. The coadjutive nature of their collaboration resulted in a more comprehensive analysis of the data.
4. His coadjutive approach to problem-solving emphasized the importance of teamwork and communication.
5. The success of the project was largely due to the coadjutive relationship between the two departments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coadjutive>