

COADJUVANCY

Meaning: Coadjuvancy refers to the collaborative or supportive role of multiple treatments or drugs working together to improve therapeutic outcomes.

1. Coadjuvancy in treatment protocols can significantly enhance patient outcomes.
2. The research emphasized the importance of coadjuvancy in drug interactions for better efficacy.
3. Her coadjuvancy during the project helped the team achieve their goals more efficiently.
4. The principle of coadjuvancy suggests that collaboration often leads to superior results.
5. He recognized the value of coadjuvancy in educational settings to support diverse learning needs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coadjuvancy>