

COAGULATIVE

Meaning: Coagulative refers to the process or changes related to the thickening or clotting of biological tissues, particularly in the context of healing or response to injury.

1. The clinician explained that the coagulative process is crucial for wound healing.
2. In the laboratory, researchers observed coagulative changes in the tissue samples after the treatment.
3. The coagulative phase of blood clotting is essential to prevent excessive bleeding.
4. Understanding coagulative mechanisms can enhance our approaches to cardiovascular diseases.
5. The pathologist noted a coagulative necrosis pattern in the biopsy results.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coagulative>