

COAPTATION

Meaning: Coaptation is the alignment and joining of two structures, particularly in the context of healing or biological development.

1. The coaptation of the two broken bone ends is crucial for a successful healing process.
2. In biology, coaptation refers to the alignment and joining of structures, often seen in the development of limbs.
3. During the surgery, the surgeon meticulously ensured the coaptation of the tissue to promote optimal recovery.
4. The coaptation of various elements in the design created a harmonious and functional living space.
5. Effective coaptation in prosthetics can greatly enhance a patient's mobility and comfort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coaptation>