

COBWEBBY

Meaning: Cobwebby: characterized by or covered with cobwebs, suggesting neglect or abandonment.

1. The abandoned house had a cobwebby corner that seemed untouched for years.
2. As she explored the attic, her fingers brushed against the cobwebby remnants of forgotten memories.
3. The old library was filled with cobwebby shelves, each holding dusty books waiting to be rediscovered.
4. He carefully removed the cobwebby drapes from the window to let in the morning light.
5. The eerie atmosphere of the cave was enhanced by its cobwebby ceiling, hinting at its long neglect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cobwebby>