

COCKING

Meaning: Cocking refers to the action of tilting or positioning something, often a body part or object, in a specific direction or preparing it for use, such as a firearm.

1. The rooster was cocking its head to the side, trying to catch a glimpse of the approaching car.
2. With a swift movement, he was cocking the gun and aiming at the target downrange.
3. She found herself cocking an eyebrow in disbelief at his outrageous claim.
4. The actor was cocking his hat to the side in a playful manner for the photo shoot.
5. As the sun began to rise, the birds outside started cocking their heads and singing cheerfully.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cocking>