

COCKUP

Meaning: Cockup (noun): a blunder or mistake that results in failure or confusion.

1. The project was a complete cockup due to poor planning and miscommunication.
2. After a series of cockups in the kitchen, we decided to order takeout instead.
3. His cockup during the presentation left the audience confused and frustrated.
4. The software update caused a massive cockup, leading to system outages across the company.
5. Despite the cockup, the team managed to come together and salvage the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cockup>