

CODIFICATION

Meaning: Codification is the process of systematically organizing and consolidating laws or rules into a coherent system or code.

1. The codification of laws simplifies the legal framework for citizens.
2. Scholars have long debated the necessity of codification in the context of evolving social norms.
3. The codification process helped to unify the diverse legal traditions of the country.
4. Many experts argue that codification enhances the accessibility of legal texts for non-professionals.
5. The recent codification of ethical guidelines has been well received by industry leaders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/codification>