

COEQUAL

Meaning: Coequal: having equal status, rank, or importance in a particular context or relationship.

1. The two departments worked as coequal partners in the project, sharing responsibilities and resources equally.
2. In a successful team, every member must feel coequal to contribute their ideas and perspectives.
3. The treaty established a coequal relationship between the two nations, promoting mutual respect and cooperation.
4. Her role in the committee is coequal to that of the chairperson, ensuring her voice is heard in all decisions.
5. In the partnership, both companies are considered coequal entities, each bringing unique strengths to the collaboration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coequal>