

COEQUALITY

Meaning: Coequality refers to the principle of equal status and treatment among individuals, emphasizing mutual respect and dignity.

1. The concept of coequality underscores the importance of treating all individuals with equal respect and dignity.
2. In the workplace, fostering a culture of coequality can lead to increased collaboration and innovation among diverse teams.
3. The principle of coequality is essential in democratic societies where every citizen's voice holds equal weight.
4. During the discussions, the group emphasized coequality as a foundation for their shared goals and values.
5. Educational institutions should promote coequality to prepare students for a diverse and interconnected world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coequality>