

COEQUALLY

Meaning: Coequally means in an equal manner or to an equal extent, ensuring fairness and impartiality.

1. The two teams agreed to share the resources coequally to ensure fairness.
2. In a truly democratic society, all voices should be heard coequally, without bias or favoritism.
3. The committee decided to distribute the funding coequally among all applicants to promote equity.
4. During the negotiations, both parties emphasized that they would benefit coequally from the proposed agreement.
5. She believed that the responsibilities of leadership should be shared coequally among all members of the group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coequally>