

COEVOUS

Meaning: Coevous: existing or occurring at the same time; contemporary.

1. The two paintings were created by coevous artists who influenced each other's styles.
2. In the study of history, it is fascinating to examine coevous civilizations and their interactions.
3. The coevous development of technology and culture often shapes societal progress.
4. They discovered that the coevous species shared a common ancestor, revealing much about evolutionary paths.
5. Understanding coevous trends in literature can enhance our appreciation of thematic connections across genres.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coevous>